

Public Workshop Agenda

Help Build More Sustainable and Equitable Communities

Tuesday, December 7, 2021, 5 pm - 7 pm

The workshop will be a virtual event held online. Spanish language translation will be provided. Register via the following link.

Workshop Purpose: You are invited to provide input on advancing work to help build more sustainable and equitable communities through State-level policy and planning work to affect transportation, land use and housing options in California. This workshop is intended to contribute to CARB's work in a number of areas including, the 2022 Report on the Implementation of the Sustainable Communities and Climate Protection Act pursuant to SB 150 \(Allen, Chapter 646, Statutes of 2017\), the 2022 Climate Change Scoping Plan Update, as well as inform State interagency efforts.

5:00 pm	Introduction and Engagement	CARB
5:10 pm	State Efforts to Support Sustainable Communities that Reduce Driving and Increase Use of Clean Transportation Options: Benefits, Challenges, and Equity Considerations	CARB
5:25 pm	Panel Discussion: Perspectives on Challenges and Future Opportunities	Dan Zack, City of Fresno Georgette Gómez, CARB Environmental Justice Advisory Committee Grecia Elenes, Leadership Counsel Hasan Ikhata, San Diego Association of Governments Jeanie Ward-Waller, Caltrans Megan Kirkeby, CA Dept of Housing and Community Development
6:00 pm	EJ Advisory Committee Member Comments

6:15 pm

Public Comment

General Questions for the Public

What are key actions/improvements/policies you would like to see the State prioritize to...

- Advance sustainable communities and associated emissions reductions generally?
- Ease the ability of the underserved community/communities to reduce the amount of driving where possible?
- Avoid potential harms to underserved communities in design or implementation of land use and transportation strategies?