Taking the survey

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying the California Air Resources Board (CARB) Research Comment Portal. The browser's address bar shows the URL: <https://ww2.arb.ca.gov/our-work/programs/research-planning/research-comment-portal>. The website header includes the CARB logo, navigation links (Calendar, Help & FAQs, Contact, Careers), language options (English, Español), and a search bar labeled "SEARCH CARB". Below the header is a navigation menu with links for ABOUT, OUR WORK, RESOURCES, SERVICES, RULEMAKING, NEWS, and EQUITY. A large image of a diverse group of people with their hands stacked in a circle is featured. The main content area is titled "Research Comment Portal" and contains a sidebar with links: Research Planning, About, News, Resources, Contracts Search Tool, and Research Concept Solicitation. The main text area has a heading "Introduction" followed by a paragraph: "Thank you for your interest in the California Air Resources Board (CARB) Research Program. CARB is initiating the research planning process for fiscal year (FY) 2023-2024 with a call for research comments and concepts from the public, which is facilitated through a survey. The annual collection of research comments and concepts is an important part of CARB's engagement with the public to inform program priorities." Below this is a heading "Background".
