RECITALS

1. ARB alleges that between July 2009 and November 2012, Triple Image manufactured, and Adoro sold, supplied, and offered for sale in California "Adoro Nail Polish Non-Acetone Remover" subject to the volatile organic compound (VOC) limit for the Nail Polish Remover category in title 17, California Code of Regulations (CCR), section 94509(a).
2. ARB alleges that the "Adoro Nail Polish Non-Acetone Remover" referenced in recital paragraph 1 contained concentrations of VOCs exceeding the 1 percent VOC limit for the Nail Polish Remover category specified in title 17, CCR, section 94509(a).
3. ARB alleges that Triple Image failed to provide a date of manufacture, or a code indicating the date of manufacture on the above listed product as required under title 17, CCR, section 94512(b)(1).
4. ARB alleges that if the allegations described in recital paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 were proven, civil penalties could be imposed against Adoro and Triple Image as provided in Health and Safety Code sections 42402 et seq. for each and every unit involved in the violations.
5. Adoro and Triple Image admits the allegations described in recital paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, but denies any liability resulting from said allegations.
6. The parties agree to resolve this matter completely by means of this Agreement, without the need for formal litigation.

Therefore, the parties agree as follows:

6. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between ARB, Adoro and Triple Image concerning the claims and settlement in this Agreement, and this Agreement fully supersedes and replaces any and all prior negotiations and agreement of any kind or nature, whether written or oral, between the ARB and Adoro and Triple Image concerning these claims.

8. Each of the undersigned represents and warrants that he or she has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement.
9. SB 1402 Statement. California Health and Safety Code (HSC) section 39619.7 (Senate Bill 1402 - Dutton, Chapter 413, statutes of 2010) requires ARB to provide information on the basis for the penalties it seeks. This Settlement Agreement includes this information, which is also summarized here.

The provision of law the penalty is being assessed under and why that provision is most appropriate for that violation.

The penalty provision being applied in this case is HSC section 42402, et seq. because Adoro and Triple Image sold, supplied, offered for sale, or manufactured for sale consumer products for commerce in California in violation of the Consumer Products Regulations (Title 17 California Code of Regulations (CCR) section 94507, et seq.). The penalty provisions of HSC section 42402, et seq. apply to violations of the Consumer Products Regulations because these regulations were adopted under authority of HSC section 41712 which is in Part 4 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

The manner in which the penalty amount was determined, including aggravating and mitigating factors and per unit or per vehicle basis for the penalty.

Penalties must be set at levels sufficient to discourage violations. ARB considered all relevant circumstances in determining the penalty in this case, including the eight factors specified in HSC section 42403.

HSC section 42402, et seq. provides strict liability penalties of $1,000 per day for violations of the Consumer Product Regulations.

In cases like this one involving unintentional first time violations of the Consumer Products Regulations where the violator cooperates with the investigation, the ARB has sought and obtained penalties of approximately $17,000 per ton of excess emissions of VOC's attributable to the violation. This represents an average cost to retire a ton of volatile organic compound emission credits and reformulate a product to comply with the Consumer Product Regulations. The penalty also addresses violations of the Consumer Product Regulations that do not cause direct, immediate harm to the environment, in this case a date code violation. In this case the total penalty is $12,000.00, including investigative costs, and there were 0.84 tons of excess VOC attributable to the violation. The penalty was reduced because Adoro and Triple Image cooperated with the investigation. Penalties in future cases might be higher or lower on a per ton or per unit basis.

Is the penalty being assessed under a provision of law that prohibits the emission of pollution at a specified level, and, if so a quantification of excess emissions, if it is practicable to do so.

The Consumer Product Regulations do not prohibit emissions above a specified level, but they do limit the concentration of VOCs in regulated products. In this case a quantification of the excess emissions attributable to the violations was practicable because Adoro and Triple Image made the product formulation and sales data necessary to make this quantification available to the ARB. Based upon this information (which the Adoro and Triple Image has designated as confidential), the violations were calculated to have caused 0.84 tons of excess emissions of volatile organic chemicals to be emitted to the atmosphere in California.

10. Adoro and Triple Image acknowledges that ARB has complied with SB1402 in investigating, prosecuting and settling this case. Specifically, ARB has considered all relevant facts, including those listed at HSC sections 42403, has explained the manner in which the penalty amount was calculated, has identified the provision of law under which the penalty is being assessed and has considered and determined that while this penalty is not being assessed under a provision of law that prohibits the emission of pollutants at a specified level, it is practicable for ARB to quantify the excess emissions from the alleged violations, has done so and has included this information in this Settlement Agreement.
11. Final penalties were determined based on the unique circumstances of this matter, considered together with the need to remove any economic benefit from noncompliance, the goal of deterring future violations and obtaining swift compliance, the consideration of past penalties in similar negotiated cases, and the potential costs and risk associated with litigating these particular violations. The penalty reflects violations extending over a number of days resulting in quantifiable harm to the environment considered together with the complete circumstances of this case. The penalty was discounted in this matter based on the fact that this was a first time violation and the violator made unusually diligent efforts to comply and to cooperate with the investigation. Penalties in future cases might be smaller or larger on a per ton or per unit basis.
12. The final penalty in this case was based in part on confidential financial information or confidential business information provided by Adoro and Triple Image that is not retained by ARB in the ordinary course of business. The penalty in this case was also based on confidential settlement communications between ARB and Adoro and Triple Image that ARB does not retain in the ordinary course of business. The penalty also reflects ARB's assessment of the relative strength of its case against Adoro and Triple Image, the desire to avoid the uncertainty, burden and expense of litigation, obtain swift compliance with the law and remove any unfair advantage that Adoro and Triple Image may have secured from its actions.
