Purpose

The California Air Resources Board (CARB) staff invite you to participate in a virtual public workshop to provide input on CARB’s development of a framework for measuring and reducing the greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions from building materials that are used in the State of California.

At this workshop, staff will review the statutory requirements for manufacturer and project-level data reporting and baseline emissions quantification, and introduce staff concepts for reporting and emissions accounting.

This workshop is part of a series of workshops and focused meetings with interested parties that CARB will be hosting to inform the rulemaking process related to embodied carbon. Public feedback from this workshop will be used to develop and refine staff regulatory proposals.
