

PUBLIC DOCUMENT - May 22, 2025PENDING LITIGATION - With California Air Resources Board as a Party

The California Air Resources Board (CARB) is a party in the cases listed below as a defendant, a plaintiff, an amicus, or as an intervenor to support the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (U.S. EPA) rules or actions. These cases are organized for convenience into seven categories: cases related to (1) passenger cars, (2) trucks, (3) off-road engines (such as locomotives and ships), (4) stationary sources (such as powerplants and oil and gas pipelines), (5) the federal Clean Air Act's National Ambient Air Quality Standards and State Implementation Plans, (6) enforcement cases, and (7) other cases. The expectation is that this list will be periodically updated. Since the case name, court name, and case number are listed, details about each case can be obtained from the filed pleadings at each court.

Challenges to CARB's or U.S. EPA's Passenger Car Emissions Regulations

CARB intervened in a challenge to U.S. EPA's recent decision to grant the waiver of preemption for CARB's Advanced Clean Cars II regulation. American Free Enterprise Chamber of Commerce v. U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (United States Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit, Case No. 25-106).

CARB intervened to defend U.S. EPA's 2024 greenhouse gas emission standards for passenger cars and pick-up trucks; U.S. EPA adopted the regulation for model years 2027-2032. Commonwealth of Kentucky, et al., v. U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, et al. (United States Court of Appeals, District of Columbia Circuit, Case No. 24-1087).

CARB intervened to defend U.S. EPA's revised 2022-2026 federal fuel economy standards issued by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). Natural Resources Defense Council v. National Highway Traffic Safety Admin., et al. (United States Court of Appeals, District of Columbia Circuit, Case No. 22-1080, consolidated with Nos. 22-1144, 22-1145).

CARB intervened to support U.S. EPA's decision to restore CARB's waiver for its greenhouse gas emission and zero-emission passenger car standards. CARB and U.S. EPA prevailed in the U.S. Court of Appeal, District of Columbia Circuit; the U.S. Supreme Court granted certiorari only on standing. Diamond et al., v. U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (United States Supreme Court, Case No. 24-7, referenced with Ohio et al., v. U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, et al. (United States Supreme Court, Case No. 24-13, United States Court of Appeals, District of Columbia Circuit, 98 F.4th 288 (2024))).

Challenge to the U.S. EPA SAFE Vehicles Rule Part 2 against U.S. EPA and NHTSA to relax federal passenger vehicle greenhouse gas emissions and fuel economy standards.
