

Subject: emission laws

From: Mrlouisville@aol.com i personal think the state of california thinks they r god they keep passing new law after laws picking on the trucker i personal will never go to california again myself ..u have run off another trucker

the emmission laws let see u want to give somebody a 800.00 ticket cause they dont have a sticker on their motor ...why dont we give u a 800 .00 ticket everytime u open your mouth seems fair to me but then gain what do u expect from a state whom has a movie star governor... just like thye no idiling law is such garbage

so congats to astate that has run off another trucker...the trucker is what gets u every thing u use on a daily business so why do u want to keep sticking it to the trucker ,,,
