Comment:

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on California's CPP Compliance Plan. Our comments are attached. In particular, we'd like to share a recent Alliance report, which showcases the tremendous potential in California to reduce emissions through the use of industrial energy efficiency, including combined heat and power.

Comment:

Thank you for the opportunity to comment. I am writing to supplement our earlier letter - as I have now consolidated attachments into a zip file. As noted in the attached, we commend California for its commitment to reducing greenhouse gas emissions and urge the state to take advantage of the tremendous opportunity for emission savings from the industrial sector.
