Final Regulation Order

Title 17, California Code of Regulations

Amend Sections 95300, 95301, 95302, 95303, 95304, 95305, 95306, 95307, 95308, 95309, 95310, 95311, 95312, 95660, 95661, 95662, 95663, and 95664, to read as follows:

§ 95300. Purpose.

Unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction issues a final ruling that H.J. Res. 87 (119th Congress), H.J. Res. 88 (119th Congress), and H.J. Res. 89 (119th Congress) are invalid or that the waivers the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA) ~~U.S. EPA~~ granted California on April 6, 2023 (88 Federal Register 20688), and January 6, 2025, ~~,~~ (90 Federal Register 642 and 90 Federal Register 643~~,~~), are in effect, regulated parties may choose to follow either this section 95300 or section 95300.0.1.

However, if a court of competent jurisdiction issues a final ruling that H.J. Res. 87 (119th Congress), H.J. Res. 88 (119th Congress), and H.J. Res. 89 (119th Congress) are invalid or that the waivers U.S. EPA granted California on April 6, 2023 (88 Federal Register 20688), and January 6, 2025, ~~,~~ (90 Federal Register 642 and 90 Federal Register 643~~,~~), are in effect, the regulated parties are subject to the requirements of this section 95300 to the extent consistent with the court's final ruling. Notice of the court's ruling will be posted on the California Air Resources Board's ~~CARB's~~ website, https://arb.ca.gov.

Under section 209(b) of the Federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. § 7543(b)), California is required to receive a waiver from the Administrator of U.S. EPA prior to enforcing an emission standard for new on-road vehicles and engines. Accordingly, California Air Resources Board will not seek to enforce the Phase 2 greenhouse gas emission standards until such time as it receives a waiver from U.S. EPA.
