9. Each of the undersigned represents and warrants that he or she has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement.
10. SB 1402 Statement. California Health and Safety Code (HSC) section 39619.7 (Senate Bill 1402 - Dutton, Chapter 413, statutes of 2010) requires ARB to provide information on the basis for the penalties it seeks. This Agreement includes this information, which is also summarized here.

The provision of law the penalty is being assessed under and why that provision is most appropriate for that violation.

The penalty provision being applied in this case is HSC section 42402, et seq. because Big Lots sold and offered for sale consumer products in commerce in California in violation of the Consumer Products Regulations (Title 17 California Code of Regulations (CCR) section 94507, et seq.). The penalty provisions of HSC section 42402, et seq. apply to violations of the Consumer Products Regulations because the regulations were adopted under authority of HSC section 41712 which is in Part 4 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code. The penalty provisions of HSC section 42402, et seq. apply to requirements adopted pursuant to Part 4.

The manner in which the penalty amount was determined, including aggravating and mitigating factors and per unit or per vehicle basis for the penalty.

Penalties must be set at levels sufficient to discourage violations. ARB considered all relevant circumstances in determining penalties, including the eight factors specified in HSC section 42403.

Under HSC section 42402, et seq. the penalty for strict liability violations of the Consumer Product Regulations are a maximum of $1,000 per day of violation, with each day being a separate violation. In cases like this involving a second violation of the Consumer Products Regulations, ARB has either sought and obtained penalties of approximately 3 times the rate for first time violations (3 times $20,000 per ton) or $1,000 for each day that the products attributable to the violation were sold or offered for sale. In this case the total penalty of $250,000 reflects a penalty of approximately $49,000 per ton plus ARB's investigative cost. The penalty was reduced because Big Lots immediately recalled the products, implemented methods to prevent future violations, and cooperated with this investigation. Penalties in future cases might be smaller or larger.

Is the penalty being assessed under a provision of law that prohibits the emission of pollution at a specified level, and, if so a quantification of the excess emissions, if it is practicable to do so.

The Consumer Product Regulations do not prohibit emissions above a specific level, but they do limit the concentration of VOCs in regulated products. In this case a quantification of the excess emissions attributable to the violations was practicable because Big Lots provided sales data and ARB's laboratory provided products' volatile organic compound concentrations. Based upon this information, the violations were calculated to have caused 5.0 tons of excess emissions of volatile organic compounds to be emitted to the atmosphere in California.

11. Big Lots acknowledges that ARB has complied with SB1402 in investigating and settling this case. Specifically, ARB has considered all relevant facts, including those listed at HSC section 42403, has explained the manner in which the penalty amount was calculated, has identified the provision of law under which the penalty amount is being assessed and had considered and determined that while this penalty is not being assessed under a provision of law that prohibits the emission of pollutants at a specified level, it is practicable for ARB to quantify the excess emissions from the alleged violations, has done so and has included this information in this Agreement.

12. Final penalties were determined based on the unique circumstances of this matter, considered together with the need to remove any economic benefit from noncompliance the goal of deterring future violations and obtaining swift compliance, the consideration of past penalties in similar negotiated cases, and the potential costs and risk associated with litigating these particular violations. The penalty reflects violations extending over a number of days resulting in quantifiable harm to the environment considered together with the complete circumstances of this case listed above. The penalty was discounted in this matter based on the factors described. Penalties in future cases might be smaller or larger on a per ton basis.
13. The final penalty in this case was based in part on confidential business information provided by Big Lots that is not retained by ARB in the ordinary course of business. The penalty in this case was also based on confidential settlement communications between ARB and Big Lots that ARB does not retain in the ordinary course of business. The penalty also, reflects ARB's assessment of the relative strength of its case against Big Lots, the desire to avoid the uncertainty, burden and expense of litigation, obtains swift compliance with the law and removes any unfair advantage that Big Lots may have secured from its actions.
